

Mass gathering Rules and Regulations
during the 32nd Grand Finale of the Great Orchestra of Christmas Charity concert
(hereinafter referred to as “Mass gathering Rules and Regulations”)

1. The 32nd Grand Finale of the Great Orchestra of Christmas Charity Concert is a mass, public, unticketed event (hereinafter referred to as “the Concert”). The Concert is organised as part of the annual charitable collection of the 32nd Grand Finale and is an artistic and entertainment event.
2. The participants of the Concert are obliged to follow the Organizer’s services’ instructions and comply with the rules and regulations established by the Organizer.
3. Due to special safety protocols, every participant of the Concert who intends to enter the mass gathering area may be subject to security checks (incl. body search and/or luggage inspection). Participants who fail to submit to security checks will be barred from entering the mass gathering area.
4. Any person who remains within the area of the Grand Finale event (incl. participants, Contractors and Employees regardless of the form of the cooperation) are obliged to follow the instructions issued by the Organizer, to obey the rule of laws and to comply with safety protocols established by the Organizer.
5. At the Concert it is forbidden to:
 - a) exhibit any aggressive and/or violent behaviour,
 - b) bring in, possess and sell alcohol, drugs, designer drugs and other intoxicating substances,
 - c) possess and bring in objects and tools (incl. weapons, weapon replicas, glass containers, umbrellas with a pointed end) which may pose a danger to other participants,
 - d) photograph ID badges and to use ID badges issued during the past editions of the Grand Finale fundraisers, which includes displaying invalid ID badges in a visible place,
 - e) bring in and use rechargeable batteries and photovoltaics,
 - f) spread and manifest vulgar, offensive, obscene, racist content, messages and symbols, and racist, xenophobic, political, religious propaganda,
 - g) use open fire (campfires, gas cylinders, barbecue),
 - h) build campfires,
 - i) possess and bring in pyrotechnical materials, gas aerosol spray, flammable substances, fuel, and generators,
 - j) bring in luggage, suitcases, travel backpacks, and other large-size items,
 - k) smoke tobacco, e-cigarettes, and use the heated tobacco device (e.g. IQOS)
 - l) climb up the stage and other technical infrastructure,
 - m) bring animals,
 - n) use radio-controlled flying models and drones,
 - o) hold exhibitions, happenings, presentations, trade activities and any promotional, marketing or image-building events (without the prior written consent issued by the Organizer),
 - p) drive motor vehicles, scooters, bicycles and other sports equipment and personal vehicles, i.e. electric vehicles without pedals and seats, allowing to move - the failure to comply will result in the towing of the vehicle at the owner's expense and risk,
 - q) hold collections in aid of causes other than the 32nd Grand Finale of the Great Orchestra of Christmas Charity,
 - r) bring in and use any devices that may interfere with the operation of the Concert staff, including vuvuzelas, and wireless devices, such as cameras, microphones, micro ports. Failure to comply may result in confiscation of the equipment.

The list presented above is not final. The Organizer reserves the right to indicate other instances of forbidden behaviour and prohibited items.
6. The Organizer does not provide any repository. The Organizer hold no liability for any lost or abandoned items.
7. Participants entering and staying in the Grand Finale area and mass gathering organised as part of the Grand Finale, accept and agree to comply with the Mass gathering Rules and Regulations, the Concert Ground Rules and Regulations, and the Grand Finale Ground Rules and Regulations.

8. The Organizer reserves the right to refuse entry to the mass gathering area in case the increased number of participants in the mass gathering area may pose a danger to the safety of the attendees.
9. Failure to comply with Mass gathering Rules and Regulations and the instructions issued by the Organizer results in an immediate expulsion from the Concert.
10. According to the Act of 20 March 2009 on the Safety of the Mass Gatherings:
 - a) the Organizer has the right and obligation to expel any person who disturbs public order or violates these Rules and Regulations (article 22, paragraph 1, point 2 of the Act on the Safety of the Mass Gatherings) from the Grand Finale area,
 - b) a person who tries to force their way into the area of a mass gathering or refuses to leave the grounds at the explicit order of the Organizer's representatives is subject to a fine (article 60, paragraph 1a of the Act on the Safety of the Mass Gatherings)
11. The Organizer broadcasts and records the course of the Concert for the television. Attending the Concert is tantamount to granting the permission for their image to be used free of charge in the TV footage, photographs and recordings filmed during the event in order to be published and distributed (both commercially and non-commercially) using all kinds of media for broadcasting and promoting the Concert as well as the Organizer's, executive producer's, and their partners' activities.
12. It is forbidden to record (in any audio, video, or audio-visual format) and to photograph (digital, analogue photography) the course of the full the event or its large portions for public dissemination, using any technique or medium, esp. online platforms such as YouTube, Facebook, Twitter, without a prior written consent issued by the Organizer.
13. To ensure the participants' safety, the Organizer can introduce video surveillance.
14. The Organizer reserves the right to alter the Mass gathering Rules and Regulations.
15. In case of any conflict matters not defined by these Rules and Regulations and the applicable laws, the final decisions on handling the conflict fall on the Organizer.
16. The administrator of the participants' personal data is the Organizer (the GOCC Foundation). For further information on the data processing, please see the information clause published at <https://en.wosp.org.pl/klauzule>
17. The Mass gathering Rules and Regulations will be publicly available at the entrance to the mass gathering and published at <https://en.wosp.org.pl/final/regulamin>